

Add the product in database:

In this project, we are going to add the product in the database. In this maven project, we are creating the database named newdata and created the new table named newtable with rollno, price and name.

Once the table is created, we can add records in the table.